

Seeking to Build Strong Bonds between the Labor Movement and the Black Community

5th Annual

C. L. DELLUMS

AFRICAN AMERICAN UNION LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

UC BERKELEY
LABOR CENTER

The University of California-Berkeley Center for Labor Research and Education (the Labor Center) announces the 5th annual C. L. Dellums African American Union Leadership School in 2010. The school develops the leadership skills of trade unionists in order to strengthen the relationship between the labor movement and the Black community, and to promote the interests of Black workers within their unions and within their communities. Leadership skills will be developed in broad arenas:

- Critical Thinking
- Implementation Skills
- Strategic Partnerships

dates:

February 20—May 22, 2010
(8 bi-weekly Saturday sessions)

tuition:

$925 per participant

location:

UC Berkeley Labor Center
2521 Channing Way

for more information:

Steven Pitts
510-643-6815
spitts1@berkeley.edu

