

Next Steps on Verizon Campaign from the AFL-CIO

As you know, CWA and IBEW have reached agreement that their members at Verizon Communications will return to work, at which time the contract will be back in force for an indefinite period. The unions have reached agreement with Verizon on how bargaining will proceed and how it will be restructured. The major issues remain to be discussed, but overall, issues now are focused and narrowed.

Please sign our solidarity statement. We'll deliver your comments to the workers as they resume negotiations.
